Re: Furlong v. Cubsul, Ql. CV 3825 (KMK) (GAV)

Dear Judge Yanthis:

Your clerk has just brought to my attention a mistake I made last month, which has apparently created some confusion I write to try to sort out what happened, and to apologize for the inconvenience I caused the Court

Attorney General represents the defendants (the State of New York, the New York state Division of Human Rights, and its Commissioner, Kunniki Gibson) both in this action and a related action captioned Heitzner y Gibson, 07-CV-6699 (KMK) (GAY). Both have been afterred to Your Honor.

In Firlong, defendants anight a premotion conference for a motion to dismiss. By order need August 15, 2007, Your Honor gave defendants 30 days to file such a motion. On September wrote to respectfully request (with plaintiff's consent) until October 15 to file that motion, and Your Honor granted that request. (A copy of the endorsed letter is attached.) Unfortunation although my September 5 letter referred to the case by name to Furlong v.

Hon. George A. Yanthis October 1, 2007 Page 2

Gibson, I inadvertently used the docket number assigned to the other case, Heitzner v. Gibson, and so the endorsed letter was docketed by the clerk to the wrong case. I will do whatever the Court directs to set this right.

Defendants intend to move to dismiss Ms. Furlong's complaint by filing their motion papers by Your Honor's October 15 deadline. Again, I apologize for the confusion my carelessness caused the Court.

Respectfully submitted,

Peter Sistrom
